

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 26 March 1976

AT 1 [REDACTED] LIAISON Picked up from Tom Sullivan, Representative Sam Steiger's (R., Wis.) staff man on the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, a copy of a letter from the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to a staff member of the Subcommittee responding to the Subcommittee's inquiry concerning the assistance provided by the telephone company to the CIA. Sullivan provided the letter to alert us to a possible formal inquiry from the Subcommittee. The information provided appears to relate to information on page 213 of the Rockefeller Commission Report and was forwarded to [REDACTED] IG Staff, to determine if there are any problems which might be prompted by such an inquiry. 5. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Tom Sullivan, on the staff of Representative Sam Steiger (R., Ariz.), called to advise of the upcoming hearings on H. R. 12309 and that the Attorney General is scheduled to testify before the Subcommittee on Government Information & Individual Rights, House Government Operations Committee, on 13 April. The legislation deals with advising individuals who were subject to the CIAOS, Co-Intel Program, and the Special Services Section Program of IRS, and those who were subject to warrantless electronic and physical surveillance. I thanked Sullivan for the alert. (Agency views on this bill are in the process of coordination.)
